

The Joint Bachelor's Degree Program between City University of Hong Kong and Columbia University

The Joint Bachelor's Degree Program between City University of Hong Kong (CityU) and Columbia University offers students an international undergraduate educational experience. The program draws upon elements both traditional and innovative, combining the academic rigor of two world-renowned universities with an attention to the roles that social and cultural traditions play in a student's intellectual formation.

Students complete the undergraduate curricula of both CityU and Columbia and earn two bachelor's degrees — one from each university.

Academics

During the first phase of the program, years one and two, students at CityU follow one of the majors noted below before applying for admission to the Joint Bachelor's Degree Program. Admitted students spend years three and four at Columbia, finishing core and major requirements for both degrees.
