3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.					Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4	5
	Each student will be required to work independently, undertaking an individual piece of work related to the programme. The scope of the programme will enable the student to select from an extremely wide range of possible topics.	√	√	√	√	√	15 hours of individual consultation per student in total
	The Dean of School will allocate a dissertation supervisor from the academic staff to each student. The supervisor will be responsible for providing guidance to the student. The selection of the dissertation supervisor will be based on staff expertise, interests and research activities. Because many topics will be necessarily cross disciplinary, the supervisor may seek the assistance of practitioners with appropriate experience and academic qualifications or members of the academic staff of the School of Law or from other departments or institutions to provide feedback and comments.	√	√	√	√	√
	Guidelines for monitoring the progress of the dissertation will be issued. Students will be expected to consult their supervisor regularly. The supervisor and the student will establish a regular schedule of progress reports and consultations. The schedule will depend on the nature of the dissertation. The principal function of the supervision will be to keep the research and dissertation activities focused, relevant and progressing. Students will be expected to be self-motivated and to plan and monitor their progress independently.	√	√	√	√	√

If LW6137C is taken as a two-semester course, the normal schedule of progress will be:

	Course start in Semester A	Course start in Semester B	Week
1. Approval of the dissertation topic, by the Dissertation Coordinator	Semester A	Semester B	1
2. Approval of an interim report, by the supervisor	Semester A	Semester B	6
3. Approval of a draft dissertation, by the supervisor	Semester B	Semester A	5
4. Submission of the completed dissertation	Semester B	Semester A	13

If LW6137C is taken as a one-semester course, the normal schedule of progress will be:

	Week
1. Approval of the dissertation, by the Dissertation Coordinator	1
2. Approval of an interim report, by the supervisor	4
3. Approval of a draft dissertation, by the supervisor	9
4. Submission of the completed dissertation	13

The interim report is intended to establish a framework for completion of the dissertation. It must show adequate progress in the research project and state:

- the aims and objectives
- literature review
- definition of problems
- methodology
- structure of the dissertation
- development plan including schedule for completion and resource requirements.

Supervisors are not responsible for the production of research material or for the preparation of the dissertation. This is the sole responsibility of students.

Students are expected to be self motivated and to independently plan and monitor their own progress. They should maintain regular contact with their supervisors throughout the period of research and preparation.

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)

(ATs are designed to assess how well the students achieve the CILOs.)

Assessment Tasks/Activities	CILO No.						Weighting	Remarks

The main text should be supplemented by footnotes as per the Oxford Standard for Citation of Legal Authorities (OSCOLA). The dissertation will be assessed on the basis of the finished written work. dissertation supervisor. The other assessor will normally be a member of the academic staff of the School, except that in some cases, where relevant expertise is required, that assessor may be from another department or from an outside organization. Assessment of the dissertation may be moderated by an External Academic Advisor. Where the marks awarded by the two assessors differ widely, the External Academic Advisor's comment will be considered.
Examination 0% (duration: N/A)
							100%

On the recommendation of the assessors, the Dissertation Coordinator may require the student to present and defend the dissertation. This will not contribute to the final mark. The purpose of the oral presentation is to test the student's comprehension of the content and context of the dissertation, and to confirm that the work presented is that of the student. The oral presentation will be made before a panel appointed by the Dissertation Coordinator and normally comprise the Dissertation Coordinator or the Chairman of the Examination Board as Chairman, the dissertation supervisor and the second assessor. The External Academic Advisor may also be invited to participate in the oral presentation.
