About us

Jockey Club Enhancing Youth Empathy Project through Immersive Visualisation enables young people to develop compassion for 1) ethnic minority groups, 2) the elderly and disabled, and 3) nature and the environment. The project is funded by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust and led by City University of Hong Kong. It comprises three related programmes that utilise the University's strengths in immersive visualization technology. Young people will be encouraged to develop their skills through "perspective-taking" and "role-taking", and create innovative solutions that meet the challenges and problems that different groups face.

TEDY (Technologies for the Elderly and Disabled people by Youths) is one of the education and community programmes under the Jockey Club Enhancing Youth Empathy Project through Immersive Visualisation. It aims at cultivating a stronger sense of social responsibility and empathic understanding among students for the elderly and people living with disabilities. The programme incubates students' original ideas and innovative designs for technologies that create social innovations. By bringing students and the target beneficiaries together, custom-designed rehabilitation aids can be made to solve daily problems and improve the quality of life.

What is the TEDY Makeathon?

TEDY Makeathon is a 72-hour event in which participants gather in a single place to rapidly prototype assistive devices and novel solutions to problems that different groups face. "Challenges" describing these specific problems will be issued to teams comprising students, professionals and potential beneficiaries. During the event, teams will have access to rapid prototyping tools (3D printers, laser cutters, etc) and facilities. They will collaborate on developing prototypes that solve these challenges, and present their ideas at the end of the event!

All necessary materials and tools will be provided! Meals and refreshments will also be provided.

In addition to contributing to a great cause and enjoy the thrill of the event, you will have an opportunity to:
