

Job description

Reporting to the Environmental Consultant, you will be using your environmental knowledge skills to support environmental field work, data processing, review environmental baseline conditions to develop baseline environmental profile and conduct research study.

Responsibilities:

- Undertaking field survey;
- Providing technical support, data processing and presenting the results systematically;
- Work independently and collaborate in team work.

Requirements

- Passion in environmental conservation.
- Willing to work outdoor.
- Good organisation and reporting skill.
- Proactive, results-oriented and able to handle multiple tasks.
- A sound knowledge of statistical techniques would be useful.
- Good command of English and Chinese (spoken and written).