

Automated Vehicles: Chinese Ethical and Legal Perspectives

- ▶ Data Governance Rules in the Context of Connected Vehicles
Weixing Shen, Professor, School of Law, Tsinghua University;
Yun Liu, Tsinghua University
- ▶ The Safety Risks of Automated Vehicles and their Regulation
Ying Wang, Associate Professor, School of Law, Renmin University
- ▶ Algorithmic Morality and Moral Decision Making in Automated Vehicle Dilemmas: A Confucian View
Jue Wang, Department of Philosophy, Xi'an Jiaotong University
- ▶ "I must Keep a Steering Wheel in an Automated Car for Taking Care of My Family": A Confucian Ethical Response
Ruiping Fan, Professor, CityU Department of Public and International Affairs
- ▶ Automated Vehicles, Privacy Protection, and Ethics: From a Confucian Perspective
Jianhui Li, Professor, Department of Philosophy, Beijing Normal University
- ▶ Automated Vehicles, Human-Machine Relations, and Ethics: A Daoist View
Qian Wang, Professor, and Wei Zhang, Professor, Department of Philosophy, Dalian University of Science and Technology
- ▶ Exploring a Suitable Legal Framework of Civil Liability for Automated Vehicle Accidents
Chunyan Ding, Professor, CityU Law School

Date

24-25 Nov 2023

Time

9:30 am – 5:50 pm
(24 Nov 2023 Friday)

9:30 am – 12:05 pm
(25 Nov 2023 Saturday)

Venue

Room 6301, 6/F, Li Dak
Sum Yip Yio Chin
Academic Building, City
University of Hong Kong

Language

Chinese

Format

Face-to-Face

Register now at
<https://bit.ly/40qPvtx>