

Firm Visit and Seminar - International Arbitration at Hogan Lovells: A Tale Across Four Continents

20 October 2022

Group photo with Mr. Sammy Li and Ms. Louise Leung (Partners) and Mr. Edward Au (Recruitment Manager)

Hogan
Lovells

The PDPS Programme arranged for 20 CityU Law students to attend a firm visit at Hogan Lovells on October 20, 2022. During the event, Hogan Lovells gave a seminar entitled "A Tale Across Four Continents: International Arbitration at Hogan Lovells."

Hogan Lovells is a prominent international law firm that operates across the Americas, Asia Pacific, Europe, Middle East, and Africa, with over 47 office locations. It is an invaluable experience for undergraduate students to learn more about the culture and practices of the firm.

*(From left to right)
Ms. Louise Leung (Partner), Mrs. Scarlet Fung, and Mr. Edward Au (Recruitment Manager)*

Mr. Godfrey Yuen, a Senior Associate at Hogan Lovells specializing in international arbitration practice, addressed the topic of international arbitration practice. Drawing on his extensive experience in collaborating with colleagues and experts from different parts of the world in arbitration cases, he vividly described his everyday work as a legal practitioner focusing on arbitration practice.

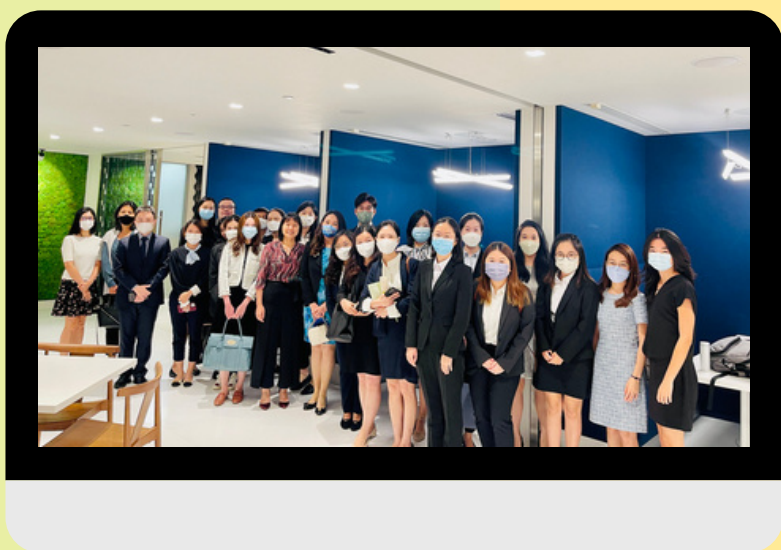

In addition, Ms. Louise Leung, Recruitment Partner, and Mr. Edward Au, Recruitment Manager, shared tips regarding application for the firm's Summer Vacation Scheme and Trainee Programme and discussed the assessment processes involved.

Mr. Godfrey Yuen shared about his experience in international arbitration practice.

After the seminar, students had the unique opportunity to engage with Recruitment Partners, Managers, and Trainees of Hogan Lovells in small groups. Such interactions offered students a deeper understanding of the firm's practices and culture as well as the qualities that Recruitment Partners seek in successful candidates.

Reported by CHIU Hei Tung Vanessa LLB 2021