

COMMUNITY LEGAL TALK ON TENANCY LAW FOR TENANTS OF SUBDIVIDED HOUSING

MRS. SCARLET FUNG (MIDDLE)
SOCIAL WORKER AND INTERN
IN CHARGE OF ORGANIZING
THE EVENT (LEFT AND RIGHT)

On 31 March 2021, Mrs. Scarlet Fung, Adjunct Professor and Director of the CityU School of Law Students' Professional Development and Public Service Programme ("the Programme"), gave a talk on tenancy law to tenants of subdivided housing and social workers serving them. The talk was organized by the social workers at the H.K.S.K.H. Lady Macle hose Centre and was held both in-person and online in light of Covid restrictions.

During the talk, Mrs. Fung discussed the legal rights and duties of landlords and tenants, especially how could a tenant of subdivided housing protect and enforce his rights as a tenant. Overall, the event was a great success and provided valuable insights for tenants living in sub-divided housing. It is important for tenants to be aware of their rights as tenants and understand the legal processes that can help protect them.
