

FAQ

For Local students without hall experience or staying in the hall less than 120 days

1. Can I choose both Kowloon Tong (KLN Tong) Compound (KLN Tong) and Ma On Shan (MOS) Compound or can I choose KLN Tong Compound as 1st priority compound, MOS Compound as 2nd priority.

Answer: NO. You can only indicate KLN Tong Compound or MOS Compound.

2. I live in Ma On Shan/ Kowloon Tong or near either one Student Residence, does it mean that I have no chance to live in the student residence?

Answer: For those students who are failing to get the hall offer via Score A & B, you still have a chance to get a bedplace via lottery.

3. Can I change the selected compound after application submission?

Answer: YES. Before the application deadline (26/3/2024), you can login AIMS again to amend.

4. I choose Kowloon Tong (KLN Tong) Compound but after the result announcement, I am on waitlist. Can I revise to apply to Ma On Shan (MOS) Compound if these is remaining bedplaces?

Answer: First, all current students who are interested to stay in Student Residence shall submit application in Round I. Hence, all students are strongly advised to submit the hall application by 26 March 2024.

SRO may launch ad-hoc round until the waiting list has been cleared. However, it depends on the actual situation every year and no guarantee for it. Please stay alert CityU email account and/or CAP message.

5. I am a current student without hall experience, when should I submit my supporting documents for hall application?

Answer: You may upload documents while submitting your application or submit upon request. Be reminded that all applicants may be requested to provide documentary proofs at any time throughout the year. You are suggested to keep all the supporting documents handy as we may require clarification in the future.

6. What should I do if I don't know my home size in square feet?

Answer: If you are living in public housing, you may refer to:
