Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

(A 150-word description about the course)

The aim of this course is to introduce to the students the various ways in which language manifests itself. Some particular languages of the world are brought in to illustrate the intricacy of natural language. Also discussed is how language is related to certain aspects of human cognition and biology, culture and society, as well as communication between different cultures and societies. Students will be exposed to the various ways in which texts are generated from language and how language effects communications between interlocutors and across cultures.

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs) 2.

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

* If weighting is assigned to CILOs, they should add up to 100%.

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2:

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

# Please specify the alignment of CILOs to the Gateway Education Programme Intended Learning outcomes (PILOs) in Section A of Annex.

Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs) (TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.					Hours/week
	_	1	2	3	4		(if applicable)
	Readings Students read critically reference materials selected from books and journals.	√	√	V	V
	Lectures Lecturer introduces concepts, theories, models, explanations, illustrations, synthesis of readings, exercises and feedback thereon, and discusses issues arising.	V	V	√ 	V		2 hours/week
	Tutorials The class considers more examples illustrating the concepts and issues related to the subject matters discussed in the lectures, and does exercises.	√	V	V	V		1 hour/week
	Writing Students critically review an article and express own opinions about the issues. Moreover, students will be asked to select their own topic to write on, and through writing a short essay, further explore issues related to language and its use.	V	V	V	√

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)

(ATs are designed to assess how well the students achieve the CILOs.)
