Part II Course Details

Abstract

Students will learn various theories of crime and be guided to examine a spectrum of violence. They will acquire the skills of critical analysis of real life cases or events as well as media violence through video watching, class discussions and exercises, and project work to discover the nature, causes and impact of violent crimes and issues on criminal justice. In this discovery journey, students will face a challenging task of coming up with solutions or proposing recommendations that can prevent or reduce violent crimes.

Assessment Rubrics (AR)Assessment Task

1. Video Watching, Worksheets and Interactive Exercises

Criterion

Capability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Demonstrate excellent ability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Good (B+, B, B-)

Demonstrate good ability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Demonstrate satisfactory ability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Marginal (D)

Demonstrate fair ability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Failure (F)

Fair to demonstrate ability to understand the subject matter and ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material

Assessment Task

2. Case Analysis and Group Report

Criterion

Ability to explain in detail in presenting critical ideas and arguments about criminological issues discussed, and to advance knowledge of relevant public discourse, research literature, and theoretical foundations of the issues under study, in writing.

Excellent (A+, A, A-)
