Part II Course Details

Abstract

This course offers an overview of doing business in East Asia. The course is broadly divided into two parts. The first part of the course provides a comprehensive overview of the macro environment of the major East Asian economies, including the economy, polity, history and culture, that affect business and management practices in each country. By introducing the salient features of each country's macro environment, such overview provides students with a firm basis to comprehend the key environmental factors that affect how business is conducted in those economies. The second part of the course focuses on some important industries and prominent firms, both domestic and foreign, in those economies. The emphasis is on the associated business opportunities and challenges facing those industries and firms. By critically examining the unique business and management practices characterized those industries and firms, students will gain an in-depth understanding of how to do business in East Asia. In addition to broad knowledge of the region, assignments and/or projects will give students opportunities to further develop expertise in a select country of his/her choice.

Assessment Rubrics (AR)Assessment Task

Exam, class participation

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

Strong evidence of original thinking conducive to applying theoretical concepts to coin creative recommendations/ solutions; good organization, capacity to analyze and synthesize; superior grasp of subject matter; evidence of extensive knowledge.

Good (B+, B, B-)

Evidence of grasp of subject, some evidence of critical capacity and analytic ability conducive to innovative application of theoretical concepts to solve problems; reasonable understanding of issues; evidence of familiarity with literature.

Fair (C+, C, C-)

Student who is profiting from the university experience; understanding of the subject; ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material.

Marginal (D)

Sufficient familiarity with the subject matter to enable the student to progress without repeating the course.

Failure (F)

Little evidence of familiarity with the subject matter; weakness in critical and analytic skills; limited, or irrelevant use of literature.

Assessment Task

Assessing and Grading Term – Assignments (Cases/Projects)

Excellent (A+, A, A-)

As in B, but with higher degree of originality and evidence of internalization into a personalized model of practice. Good evidence of reflection on own performance based on theory, conducive to creative views. Generalizes relevant principles, models or practices to new and unfamiliar real-life contexts creatively.

Good (B+, B, B-)

The evidence presents a good appreciation of the general thrust of the project. Good coverage with relevant and accurate support. A clear view of how various aspects of the project integrate to form a thrust or purpose. Good evidence of application of course content to practice. Solutions or recommendations well justified, often innovatively

Fair (C+, C, C-)

The evidence is relevant, accurate and covers a fair number of issues. However, there is little evidence of an overall view of the project. Demonstrates declarative understanding of a reasonable amount of content. Able to discuss content meaningfully but little application or integration of items. Fair justification of solutions or recommendations.

Marginal (D)

Pieces of evidence are relevant and accurate, but are isolated, addressing a limited number of issues. Demonstration of understanding in a minimally acceptable way. Poor coverage, no originality, weak justification of solutions or recommendations.
